

tokyo hacker space

JAPAN

www.tokyohackerspace.org

What is Tokyo Hackerspace?

An organization of like-minded people who come together to share their skills and make interesting projects.

- Make friends
- Teach and learn
- Do it together
- Geek Language exchange
- Study or practice together
- Play games
- Socialize

Classes & Events

We have classes and events where you can:

- learn about electronics
- gain programming skills
- learn about Linux and BSD
- design circuit boards
- laser cutter, CNC mill & 3D Printer
- learn wood work
- learn welding and metalwork
- build robots and quadcopters
- learn to use power tools safely
- play board games

How can you take part?

We have weekly meetings that are open to the public.

Tuesday 7:30-10pm Open house.

Wednesday 7:30-10pm. Nihongo night.

Both nights everyone is welcome!

Membership Benefits

Benefits of becoming a member include:

- 24/7 access
- Discounts on classes
- Pizza parties
- Store your project here
- Free access to thousands of parts
- Members only events
- Have a voice in the community

Tokyo Hackerspace is located at:
Yayoicho 40-7, Itabashi-ku Tokyo 173-0021

We are located about 5 minute walk from Nakaitabashi station which is 4 stops from Ikebukuro station on the Tobu Tojo line.

Alternately a fifteen minute walk from Itabashi-Honcho stn on the Toei Mita line

We look forward to meeting you!